

The Dobler-Group is an international operating organisation of the facade industry. The core competence is the field of windows, doors and unitized facades. At five company premises, more than 400 employees do realise high-quality facades for the European market.

DOBLER
METALLBAU

For the professional management of our construction sites in the European countries abroad Germany, Austria and Swiss, we are searching for a English-speaking

Site Manager (m/f)

Your responsibilities:

- setup and organisation of the construction site
- planning and control of resources (labour and equipment)
- preparation of installation concepts, risk assessments and method statements (RAMS)
- detailed planning of programme, logistics and labours
- ensure the proper execution on the contractual scope of works
- coordination of installation works on site
- guiding the Dobler-site-team
- management of sub-contractors (programme, technical and commercial)
- execute the site relevant correspondence with the client and the sub-contractors
- keeping the site-diary and ensure proper documentation of all relevant happenings
- programme and budget monitoring
- troubleshooting if required
- comply with health and safety requirements and ensure all measures necessary taken
- quality assurance
- close collaboration with the project management and design team in Germany

Your requirements:

- experience and knowledge about aluminium constructions, windows, doors and facade technology (stick systems and unitized facades as well as rain screen cladding, coping, canopies, etc.)
- managing experience at international large-scale construction sites
- willingness to stay out of the country for several weeks / willingness to travel
- stable skills at the MS-office software (especial MS-Project and Excel) and solid knowledge in using PC
- team spirit, excellent communication forms and self-confident personal attitudes as well as engagement, reliability and a self performed mode of operation
- cost responsibility, ability to make decisions and assertiveness
- business fluent English orally and in writing
- business fluent German orally and in writing

we offer:

A exciting field of activities and the participation within a professional, well-experienced and dedicated team. A performance-related salary and career advancement opportunities in a continuously growing company. If you are interested in working for us we are looking forward to receive your application in German via e-mail bewerbung@dobler-metallbau.com